Stabilized NIM on the back of loan growth and reduction of funding costs

Interest Income and Interest Expenses, RUB bln

- Continued drop in yields due to loans re-pricing to the current market level was partially offset by interests received from new lending which significantly accelerated in the second quarter. As a result interest income fell only by 5.2% QoQ.
- First results of efforts on funding costs optimization were delivered in the second quarter. Interest expenses were down 5% QoQ resulting from re-pricing of retail deposit book on the back of continued inflow of individual deposits as well as growing share of current accounts (32% of customer funds as of the end of the quarter).

NIM and Spread evolution

- Despite contraction of interest spread, growth of business volumes allowed us to stabilize NIM in the second quarter at 3.7% versus 4.0% in the previous quarter. Only 26 bps QoQ reduction resulted from robust growth of loan portfolio and lower interest expenses.

Revenue improvements driven by stronger fees & commissions

Operating Income and Expenses, RUB bln

Cost to Income before provisions, %

- In the environment of low rates we focused on fee-generating products and managed to increase non-interest income by 22.8% QoQ. This resulted in solid 44% share of non-interest income in total operating income before provisions. Total revenue was up 5.2% QoQ driven by stronger fees from settlements and payrolls coupled with healthy loan growth.

- Operating expenses increased by 9.7% QoQ primarily due to the conducted advertisement campaign and growth in expenses related to IT investments in banking technologies. Personnel expenses were under strict control and grew only by 2,5% QoQ.

- Cost to income ratio increased by 2.8 pps QoQ due to faster growth of expenses in second quarter and reached 66.7% for H1 2010.

Consecutive policy of conservative provisioning

Operating profit and provisions, RUB bln

- Cost of risk accounted for 2.7% in the second quarter compared to 2.6% in Q1 due to additional charges to provisions for loan losses on restructured loans expired in Q2. Allowances to provisions amounted to Rub 667 mln in Q2 and this allowed to improve total NPL coverage ratio to 99%. For the NPLs with overdue more than 90 days coverage ratio was at the level of 135%.

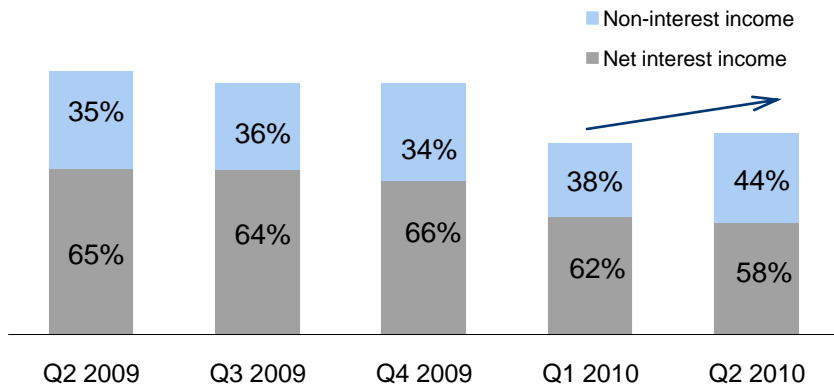

Net profit, RUB bln

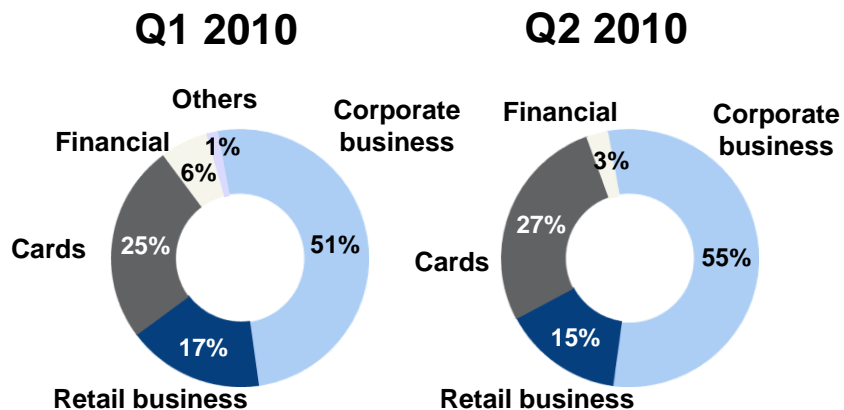

- Having consulted with auditors we slightly changed the approach to accounting for deferred tax assets which was the ground for reduction of effective tax rate to the 29% level for H1 in comparison with 48% in Q1. Thus net income grew by 25% QoQ.

Fee income generation

Strong non-interest income based on long-term relations with customers

Fee income breakdown by segments

Net fee income distribution

Key points

Due to falling interest rates environment we focused on enhancing fee-generating banking products and managed to grow the share of non-interest income in total operating income to 44%. 18% fee growth QoQ was mainly driven by payrolls and servicing the settlements of the customers

Servicing daily client's transaction like settlements, money transfer, payments, cash collections is the base for long-term relations with customers. Fee generating products are well diversified across internal businesses and type of banking products

Strategic approach to cost management

Operating expenses breakdown

Personnel expenses are fully covered by fees & commissions earned

*2006 - less extraordinary items

Costs summary

Due to the increase in fees and commissions in Q2 the bank returned to 100%+ coverage of personnel expenses. Personnel expenses grew only by 2,5% in Q2 and were 109% covered by earned fees and commissions.

Operating expenses grew by 10% q-o-q partially resulted from conducted advertisement campaign and growth in IT investments in banking technologies.

Thus cost to income ratio increased by 270 bps q-o-q due to faster expenses growth.
